Obituary

Mr. Frankie Lee Ray was born on October 28, 1966, in Washington, Alabama, to the late Annie Mae Ray and Burley Ray.

Frankie grew up in Atkinson County, where he attended public schools. Known for his loving and kind-hearted nature, he was always willing to lend a helping hand. He was a dedicated worker and a versatile jack of all trades. Frankie had a passion for cooking, grilling, fishing, and spending quality time with his family, which brought him immense joy.

In 1998, Frankie met the love of his life, Kathleen Ray. Their bond was inseparable, and they spent most of their time together. Frankie was the devoted husband she had always dreamed of, and his absence will be deeply felt by all who knew and loved him.

On December 6, 2024, Frankie departed this earthly life. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Annie Mae Ray and Burley Ray.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Kathleen Ray; one son, Cornelius (Renee) Burch; three sisters: Carolyn Burch, Catherine Ray, Angela (Jason) Raestraw; three brothers: Walter (Ethel) Brown, Burley (Clydie) Ray Sr., Burley Ray Jr.; two step-daughters: Rolanda Alisha (Jeramine) Rogers, and Leholmen (Kunta)Johnson; three grandchildren: Kanecia Johnson, Lashannon Johnson, Christian Presley; two great-grandchildren: Degautte Tucker, and Jehlani Toumbs; special friend: John Moore; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

*Lovingly Submitted
