

I'm Free

I Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savoured much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me;

God wanted me now, He set me free.

A Life Well Lived.....

Addis Bell Jr., born on May 11, 1964, to the late Ida Mae Bell of Homerville, Georgia, and Addis Bell Sr. of Panama, Florida, entered eternal rest on December 28, 2024. He attended the public school system of Clinch County and later went on to build a legacy of hard work, devotion, and love.

Addis was married to Ruby Graves Bell and was a proud father of three children: one son and two daughters. Addis spent over 20 years as a dedicated employee at Fleetwood and later worked for five years at PCC. Outside of his professional life, Addis was a man of many talents and passions. A gifted carpenter, he could build almost anything and took immense pride in his craft. His love for fishing was well-known; he was rarely seen without a fishing pole in the back of his truck. In later years, he discovered a passion for bowling and cherished the moments he spent with his seven beloved grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his loving mother, Ida Mae Bell, and his siblings: Gloria Riley, Linda Riley, Idis Bell, Donald Bell, and R. Jr. Riley, all of Homerville, Georgia.

Addis leaves to cherish his memories his devoted wife, Ruby Graves Bell; his children, Crystal Bell (Myron) of Valdosta, Georgia, Trivia Andrews (Jimmy) of Homerville, Georgia, and Rakeem Bell of Douglas, Georgia; and his father, Adis Bell Sr. of Homerville, Georgia. He is also survived by his siblings, Mary Ann Grady of Homerville, Georgia, Jerome Riley (Kaye) of Homerville, Georgia, and Tony Bell of Tampa, Florida; a brother-in-law, James Graves (Aurelia); and three sisters-in-law, Sharee Graves, Sharon Martin (Harvey), and Brenda Batts (Greg).

Addis was a proud and loving grandfather to his seven grandchildren: Amariana Bolden, Ja’Kiyah Bolden, Aubrey Bolden, Myron Jr. Bolden of Valdosta, Georgia; and Tynaisa Fluker, Matthew Bell, and Logan Wade Fluker of Homerville, Georgia. He also leaves behind two special nephews, Darnell Grady and Quinton Grady of Homerville, Georgia; two Godsons, Keilan Reeves and Bryson Reeves; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.
