

As I Sit In Heaven

As I sit in Heaven
and watch you everyday
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away

I hear you when you're laughing
And watch you as you sleep
I even place my arms around you
To calm you while you weep

I see you wish the days away
Begging to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone

Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just you wait and see

So live your life, laugh again
Enjoy yourself, be free
Then I know with every breath you take You'll be taking one for me

Life Reflections

Eva Mae Roe was born on August 7, 1963 in Miami, FL to Dorothy Wilson and the late Moses James. As a native of Douglas, GA since her childhood, Eva attended school locally until later graduating from Coffee High School in 1981. After joining the workforce and beginning her career shortly after graduation, Eva went on to further her education by obtaining several certifications and diplomas in the fields of Early Childhood Education, Behavioral Health, and Patient Care. A lifelong learner, Eva continuously refined her skillset, even as a dedicated caretaker at The Magnolia House Inc. of Douglas, GA.

From a young age, Eva embodied strength, compassion, and a devout faith in God— values she carried throughout the entirety of her life. As a faithful member of Family Life Christian Center of Douglas, GA for more than twenty years, she diligently served in various ways as unto the Lord. The memories of Eva’s modest yet bold personality, meticulous demeanor, joyful presence, along with her soft smile will live on in the hearts of her loved ones, friends, church family, co-workers from present and past, and all the other lives she touched.

As a beloved mother, Eva was a guiding light, a confidant, and a source of endless support and encouragement. Her greatest joy was her family, and she dedicated her life to loving and nurturing her children: Antwain and Markeeta James and Laquisha S. Roe. She was also a cherished grandmother, affectionately known as “Grandma Eva”, whose love extended endlessly to her grandchildren: Teauna Harris, Adam James, and Ava James.

Eva departed this life peacefully on December 16th, 2024 at the age of 61 leaving a legacy of love, kindness, and grace.

She is survived by her mother, Dorothy Wilson, Two children: Antwain (Markeeta) James and Laquisha S. Roe, Three grandchildren: Teauna Harris, Adam James, and Ava James, Siblings: Deborah (Herman) Edwards, Tracey (Charles) Jordan, Craig James, Lashonda Wilson, and Michael (Valorie) Wilson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, god-children, and lifelong friends. She eternally joins her father, Moses James, stepfather Arthur Wilson, & brother Andrew Wilson who preceded her in death.

Though our hearts are heavy with grief, we are comforted by the countless memories of joy, love, and laughter that she shared with us. Eva Roe will forever be missed, but her light will continue to shine and act as a beacon of hope, guiding us every day.
