

I'm Free

I Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,

I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call:

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savoured much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me;

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Linda S. Brandon was born on June 29, 1963, in Eatonton, Georgia, to the late Jerry Richard Harrison and Gladys Little Harrison. She was educated in the Putnam County School System and earned her G.E.D. from Christian Academy.

In 1980, Linda relocated to Alma, Georgia, where she built a beautiful life grounded in faith, love, and kindness. A devoted and faithful Christian, she attended church regularly, beginning with Everett Chapel Freewill Baptist. She later became a member of Mt. Sinai Evangelistic Church of Jesus and ultimately found her spiritual home at Wayne Street Church of God By Faith.

Linda was known for her warmth, generosity, and the unconditional love she extended to her family, friends, and everyone she encountered. She never met a stranger, and her ability to make others feel welcome and cherished was a gift she shared freely. Linda was beloved by all who knew her, and her kind spirit was a source of light to everyone she met. She was always willing to lend a helping hand and took joy in uplifting others.

On January 2, 2025, Linda answered the call of her Heavenly Father in Augusta, Georgia. Though her physical presence will be greatly missed, the memories of her love and joy remain eternal.

Linda leaves behind her cherished family: one brother, Richard J. Harrison; two sisters, Fannie L. Loyd and Lillie P. (Tony) Elvington; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, family, and friends who will continue to carry her memory in their hearts.
