Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

Celatine "Renee"

SUNRISE: APRIL 16, 1971

Life Reflections

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord
~2 Corinthians 5:8

Celatine Renee Robinson, born on April 16, 1971, in Meridian, Mississippi, entered eternal rest surrounded by the love of her family and friends. She was the beloved daughter of the late Arlenzie Hopkins and Mary L. Street. In 1972, Renee relocated to Douglas, Georgia, where she grew up and graduated from Coffee High School in 1989.

In March 2003, Renee united in marriage with her devoted husband, Clifford Lee Robinson. A dedicated professional, Renee gave over 30 years of service to the United States Department of Agriculture, earning the respect and admiration of her colleagues. Known for her quiet and kind spirit, Renee cherished her family and nurtured a legacy of love and commitment.

Renee leaves to celebrate her memory her loving husband, Clifford Lee Robinson, and their children: Cornelius Manning (Katassieunia Johnson) of Valdosta, Georgia; Nathan Manning of Canton, Georgia; Michael Gifford of Douglas, Georgia; and Clifford O'Neil Robinson of Macon, Georgia.

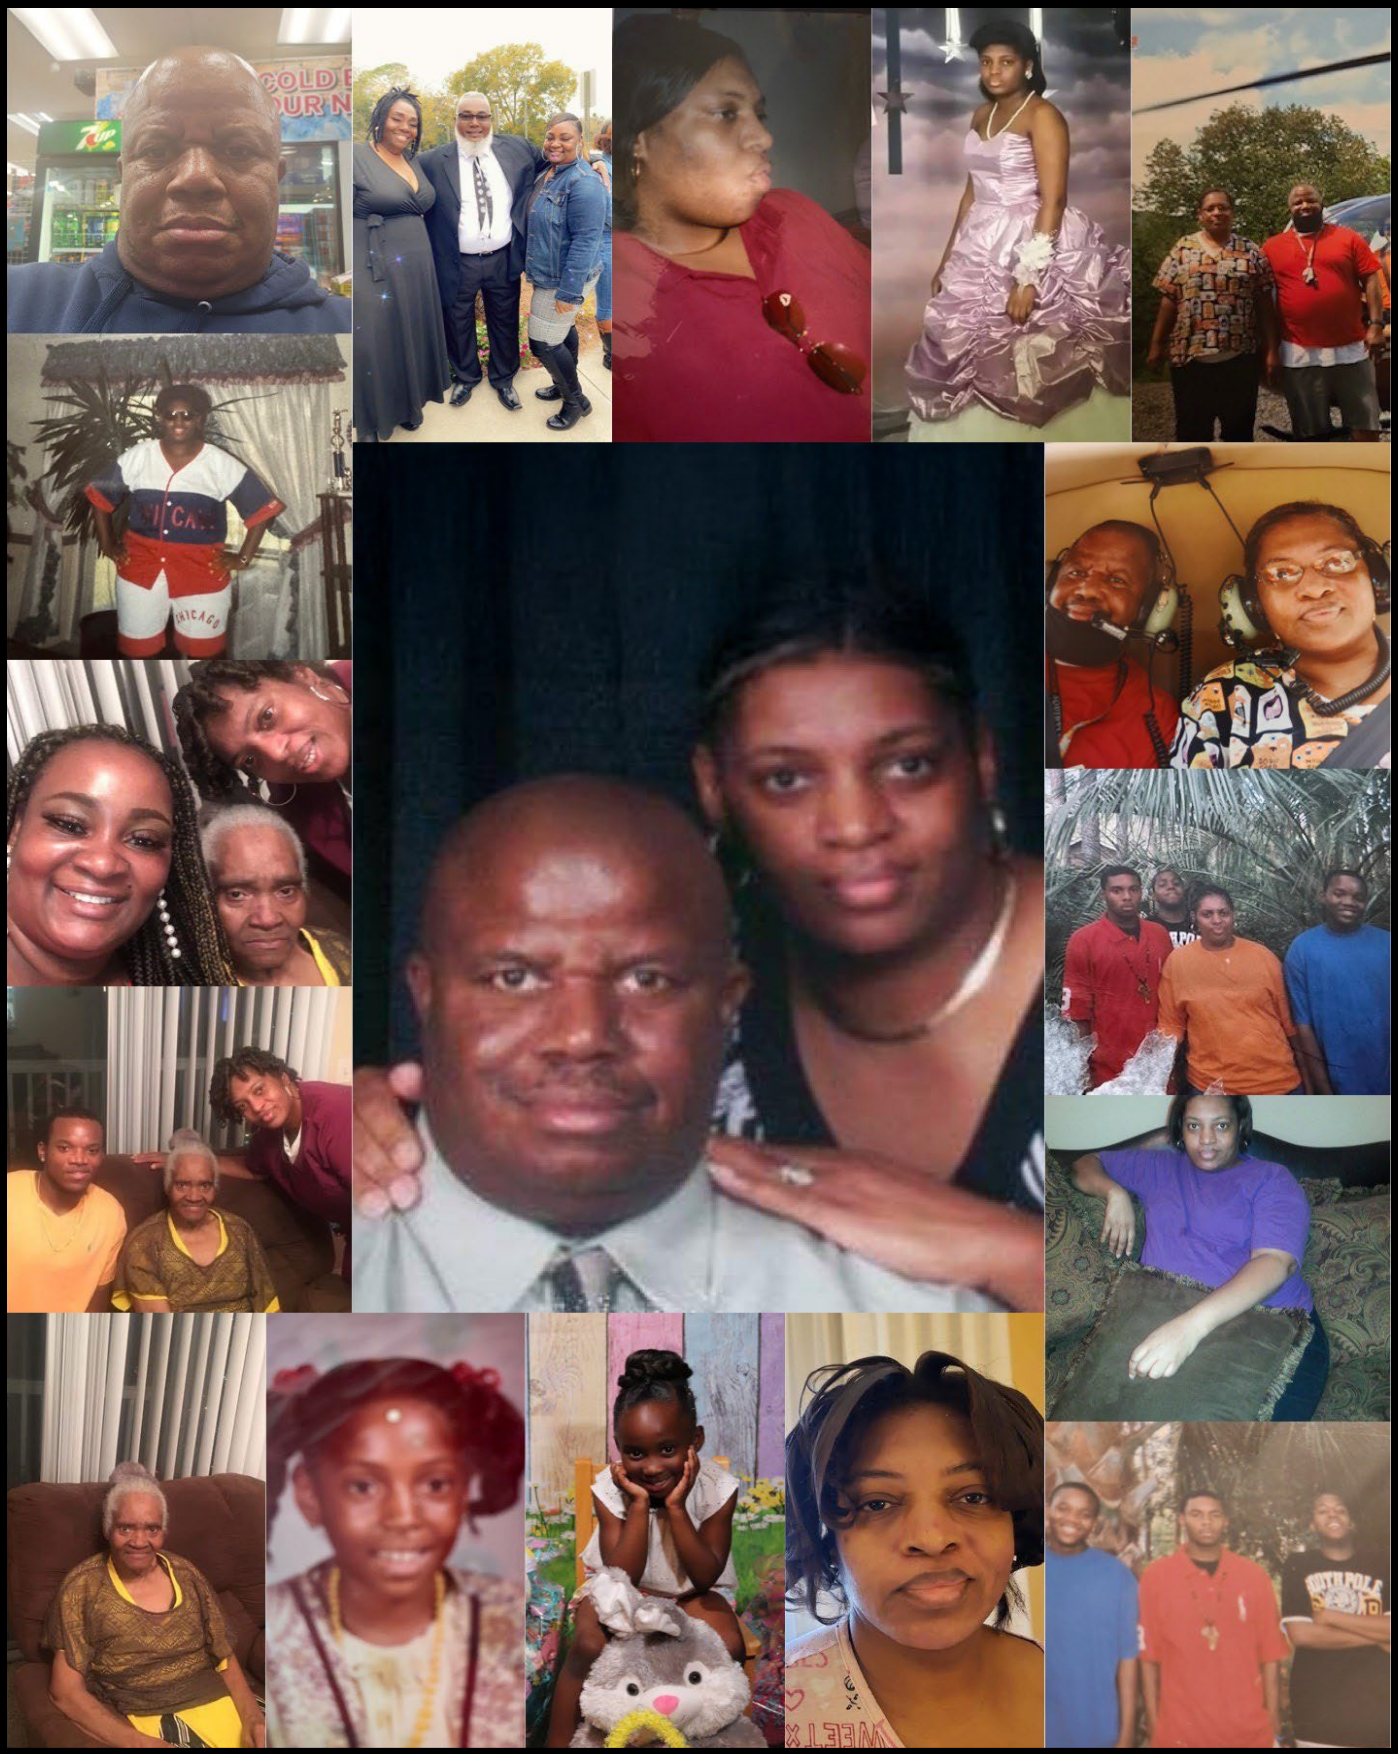

She is fondly remembered by her special father, Arbennie Cope; one brother, Anthony (Pamela) Baskin of Douglas, Georgia; and two sisters, LaTrina Cope and Mary (McKale) Ross, both of Douglas, Georgia.

Renee's legacy lives on through her cherished grandchildren, Nevaeh Manning of Valdosta, Georgia, and Jamaya Daniels of Macon, Georgia. She is also survived by her extended Hopkins family, including numerous brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Special friendships were a cornerstone of Renee's life, and she will always be remembered by her dear friends, Mrs. Dorthy Wilfork and Loretta Sanders.

Renee's grace, dedication, and love will remain in the hearts of all who knew her. Her life was a testament to quiet strength, deep faith, and unwavering love for her family and friends.
