

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all good times,
Shared throughout the years,
Now I am contented and no longer here
That my life was worthwhile,
Because I know by loving you
That I made you smile.
When you are walking down the street ,
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footstep,
Just a few steps behind.
So please don't be unhappy,
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Every morning, noon and night.

Life Reflections

2 Timothy 4:7

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.”

Elvenia Spencer Clay, 83, returned peacefully to her heavenly home on March 8, 2025. Born in June 1941 in Atkinson County, Georgia to Robert Lee and Arleatha Spencer, she was a devoted Pastor at Overcomers Tabernacle Faith and Praise. Known as a virtuous woman whose life embodied the truth that “her price was far above rubies,” Pastor Clay spoke with wisdom and always offered faithful instruction, qualities deeply rooted in her relationship with God.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Apostle Billy R. Clay Sr., her parents and stepfather, Arthur Lumpkin, her daughters, Barbara Dugger and Angela Clay, and her sisters, Rebanner Jackson and Gwendolyn Bryant.

Elvenia leaves behind a cherished legacy through her surviving family: her five children: Dana Clay, DeAnna (Anthony) Graham, Alecia (Michael) Harvey, Tara Davis, and Billy R. Clay Jr.; her siblings: Marilyn Chandler, Angilotia Lee, Shirley Braithwaite, and Wallace Lee; as well as numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, cousins, godchildren, other relatives, friends, and the entire congregation of Overcomers Tabernacle of Faith and Praise.
