LIFE REFLECTIONS

“For no one is cast off by the Lord forever. Though he brings grief, he will show compassion, so great is his unfailing love.”

Lamentations 3: 31-32

Danny Lewis Martin, age 72, passed away suddenly and peacefully on February 19, 2025, at Coffee Regional Medical Center. He was a loving husband, devoted father, cherished grandfather, and a dear friend to many.

Born in Douglas, GA, Danny lived a life filled with love, laughter, and kindness. He was known for his warm smile, gentle demeanor, and unwavering generosity. For over 30 years, he worked diligently at Gold Kist, where he was highly respected for his dedication and strong work ethic. His integrity and perseverance left a lasting impact on all who had the pleasure of working alongside him.

In his free time, Danny enjoyed hunting, fishing, and staying informed on current events. He found joy in the simple moments spent with family and friends. A man of mystery and quiet strength, his stern yet loving nature made him truly unforgettable—to know him was to love him.

Danny was preceded in death by his parents, Mertice (Brass) Harrell and Jerry (Susie Mae) Mitchell Jr.; his son, Santos Demond Martin; his brothers, Gregory Martin, Jerry Harrell, Jerome Mitchell, and Dennis Mitchell; and his sisters, Marie Wiley-Adams and Patricia Mitchell-Sutton.

He leaves behind his beloved wife, Rosa Mae Martin; his children: Yakima Martin, Alisa (Mareon) Williams, LaDon Morris, Terrance Brown, Desmond Martin, Demetria (Jeffery) Sawyer, Tonya (Andre Suggs) Brockington, and DeAndra (Richard) Jones; special daughter, Shenita McFadden; and two special sons, Germany Brockington and Tico Smith Jr. Danny is also survived by his siblings: Gary Lee (Cynthia) Mitchell, Danny Clark-Mitchell, Juanita (DL) Williams, and Wendell Harrell; two special friends, Riley Newkirk Sr and Pastor Theodore Moore.; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.
