

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,

Don't remember me with tears,

Remember all good times,

Shared throughout the years,

Now I am contented and no longer here

That my life was worthwhile,

Because I know by loving you

That I made you smile.

When you are walking down the street ,

And you've got me on your mind,

I'm walking in your footstep,

Just a few steps behind.

So please don't be unhappy,

Just because I'm out of sight,

Remember that I'm with you

Every morning, noon and night.

Obituary

“As seasons change, so does life’s song
Through joy and tears, we carry on
Through you’re gone, your love remains
In our hearts, forever sustained.”

On February 26, 2025, Mrs. Katherine Turner was called home at Harborview Health Center in Altamonte Springs, Florida. She was born in Dadeville, Alabama, on January 31, 1923, to the late Robert and Ada Johnson. A devoted mother, grandmother, and friend, Katherine was a longtime resident of Douglas, Georgia, for over 60 years before moving to Orlando, Florida, where she spent the rest of her days.

On March 13, 1939, she was united in holy matrimony with her late husband, Willie Turner. From this blessed union, they had eight children.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Willie Turner; five of her children: Willie Joe Turner, Tommie L. Turner, James Douglas Turner, Annie K. Vines, and Varndalyn Brown; as well as her Godson, James “SunnyBoy” Jones.

She leaves to cherish her memory her three remaining children: Linda (Essco) Brown and Glenn (Candice) Turner, both of Douglas, Georgia; Paula (Eric) Hudnall of Apopka, Florida; and Stacey (Dorles) Turner of Chesterfield, Virginia. She is also survived by her Goddaughter, Doris Jones of Meridian, Mississippi; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
