

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Acknowledgements

We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our time of sorrow with prayers, words, thoughts, visits, and flowers. Words alone cannot express our gratitude. Keep us in your prayers and may God bless you all.

Life Reflections

Willie Anthony Howard, affectionately known as "Tim," was born on April 11, 1962, in Coffee County, Georgia, to the late Willie Ben Howard and Dorothy Howard. He was educated in the Coffee County School System before furthering his skills through Job Corps, where he learned a trade that served him well throughout his life.

A hardworking and dedicated man, Tim was employed by Alan Peacock for many years, earning the respect and admiration of those around him. His work ethic and commitment to his craft were unmatched.

On Thursday, February 13, 2025, Tim's earthly journey was tragically cut short. Though gone too soon, his memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his beloved daughter, Porsche Howard; his sister, Brenda Carter; his brother, Rufus (Coco) Howard ; five nieces and six nephews; three cherished friends who were like brothers: Meatman, Mike Colby, and Manaboo; a host of loving cousins, extended family, and dear friends

Tim will be remembered for his kindness, strength, and unwavering dedication to those he held close. His presence will be deeply missed, but his legacy of love and hard work will endure forever.
