

I'm Free

I Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

A Life Well Lived.....

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.”
~2 Timothy 4:7

Nathaniel King, affectionately known as “Spooky,” was born on November 17, 1948, in Douglas, Georgia, to the late Aliean and Tarris King. He attended public schools in Coffee County, Georgia, and at the age of 16, he moved to Miami, Florida, to pursue a professional career in boxing. His dream had turned into a reality. Competing in the middleweight class, Nathaniel enjoyed a successful career that began in 1969 and concluded in 1989.

Nathaniel met and married the late Annie Lee King, and from their union came two beautiful children, Chiquita L. King-Brooks and Mackenzie King. Later in life, he found love again and spent fourteen cherished years with his loving and devoted companion, Rebecca Williams.

He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Tarris and Aliean King; his late wife, Annie Lee King; his brothers, Lucious King, Willie King, George King, and Jerry King; and his sisters, Doris Jackson and Shirley Dunnom.

Nathaniel leaves to treasure his memory: his loving and devoted companion, Rebecca Williams of Douglas, Georgia; his daughter, Chiquita L. King-Brooks of Tallahassee, Florida; his son, Mackenzie King of Tallahassee, Florida; his grandson, Timothy Brooks II of Tallahassee, Florida; his brother, James (Sharon) King of Miami, Florida; his stepchildren, Dennis (Kiara) Williams and Keyaka Williams, both of Douglas, Georgia; his step-grandchildren, Jatavious Williams, Jordyn Williams, Zion Williams, De'Lysia Williams, Javeyah Williams, Alerie Williams, and Ja'Bryson Williams all of Douglas, Georgia; his sister-in-law, Jimmie Ann King of Miami, Florida; a special niece, Minister Cecelia "DeDe" (Monte) Wright of Lakeland, Florida; along with a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Nathaniel “Spooky” King will be remembered for his fighting spirit, warm heart, and the deep love he had for his family and friends. His legacy will live on through all those who had the pleasure of knowing him.
