

To Our Amazing Daughter

*Our darling girl, a shining light,
Your laughter bright, now turned tonight,
Though pain and grief fill up our hearts
Your memory never truly departs
We love you always, our sweet daughter,
Until we meet, your soul we'll nurture.*

Obituary

*"God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day."
- Psalm 46:5*

Azjanae Quamoria Brooks, affectionately known as "Nae Nae," was born on November 21, 2009, in Douglas, Georgia, to Teyoka Brooks and Antwann Brooks. She was raised in a home filled with love alongside her devoted siblings, who she cherished deeply.

Nae Nae attended Bellevue High School. Known for her cheerful spirit, infectious smile, and friendly attitude, she touched the hearts of all who knew her.

Her family, friends, and community knew Nae Nae as someone full of hope, dreams, and boundless potential. She had aspirations for her future and a heart full of love. Though her time with us was far too short, she left an indelible mark on everyone she encountered.

On May 31, 2025, Nae Nae was sadly taken from us far too soon, leaving behind a legacy of love, joy, and laughter that will continue to resonate in the hearts of all who knew her.

Nae Nae is survived by her loving parents, Teyoka and Antwann Brooks; her siblings, Zakaiya Manning, Shana Williams, Zywuerton Manning, Latonian Manning, Aiyanna Brooks, Andraya Brooks, and Jalon Eady; her grandparents, Chandra Baker, Henry Manning, and Natasha (Eddy) Martin; her nephew, Ziarre Manning; her best friends, Zion Johnson and Ahrayah Harris; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will forever hold her memory in their hearts.
