

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms
And tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love her and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

Recessional

Mrs. Cynthia Mitchell was born on March 21, 1957, to the late Eula Mae Johnson. A devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, Cynthia lived a life marked by hard work, love, and faith.

She was employed with Coats and Clark for twenty-seven years before retiring. A faithful and active member of Poplar Spring Baptist Church in Nicholls, Georgia, Cynthia was known for her steadfast devotion to her faith and her church community. She found great joy in reading, a lifelong passion that brought her peace and knowledge.

Cynthia met and married the love of her life, Mr. Gary Lee Mitchell. Their union was blessed with three children who were the center of her world.

On Wednesday, July 16, 2025, Cynthia peacefully transitioned at Coffee Regional Medical Center.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Eula Mae Johnson; one sister, Betty Jean Wright; and two brothers, Larry Fobbs and Thomas Earl Frost.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her loving husband, Gary Lee Mitchell; two devoted daughters, Michelle (Rico) Williams and Tunisha Mitchell, both of Nicholls, Georgia; one beloved son, Gary Mitchell of Maui, Hawaii; and one special son, Phillip Rollins. She is also survived by one brother, Tommy Lee (Emmaline) Frost; one sister, Gussie Fox; and three special sisters, Lee Doris (James) Wells, Sheryl Frost, and Cynthia Fobbs. Cynthia's legacy continues through her grandchildren: LaTrekieuna White, Aaliyah White, and Missy Mitchell; and her great-grandchildren: Kashariyona "Plum" White, Tylasia "Sweet" White, Kasmine White, and Da'Nasia West. She also leaves behind her dear friend, Carolyn Brockington, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and cherished friends.
