

I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
To following the path God made for me,
I took his hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To love, to laugh, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
For I found peace at the last, that day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembering joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with hearts of sorrow,
My wish for you is the hope of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed much too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wants me now and He set me free.*

Life Reflections

Daniel Wilson was born on November 13, 1946, in Coffee County, Georgia, to the late Otis Wilson Sr. and Claudia Bell Strozier-Wilson. He received his education in Coffee County and graduated from Carver High School. Following graduation, Daniel proudly served in the United States Army for two years, where he was honorably discharged.

In 1970, Daniel married the love of his life, Dora Lee Hill-Wilson. Their union was blessed with seven children; four sons and three daughters.

Daniel was a hardworking man throughout his life. After completing his military service in 1968, he spent many years puckwooding, driving log trucks, and working at Fleetwood. Later, he retired from Walmart Distribution Center. Even in his later years, Daniel remained dedicated to serving others, working at the Senior Citizen Center in Douglas, Georgia.

Faith was central to Daniel's life. He was a lifelong member of Pine Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Kirkland, Georgia, where he served faithfully as Chairman Deacon for more than 23 years. His love for God, church, and community was evident in his unwavering commitment and service.

Daniel was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Dora L. Wilson; two sons, Demond Wilson and Donta Wilson Sr.; his sisters, Juanita Sims and Evelyn Sims; and his brother, Otis Wilson Jr.

Precious Memories

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.”

2 Timothy 4:7
