Acknowledgments

We, the family of the late Mother Bobbie Jean Taylor, wish to extend our deepest gratitude for your prayers, expressions of love, and unwavering support during this time. As believers, we take comfort in knowing that her life was a beautiful reflection of the marvelous work God performs in and through us.

~The Family of Mother Bobbie Jean Taylor

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I have you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile, for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say
Welcome home

Life Reflections

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.”

~2 Timothy 4:7

On June 12, 1957, Bobbie Jean (Colson) Taylor was born in Pearson, Georgia, to the late L.C. and Mary Colson. She was the youngest of three children and was preceded in death by her siblings, Leroy Colson and Linda Gaskin.

Bobbie Jean received her education through the Atkinson County School System. After completing her studies, she pursued a career in banking where she worked faithfully for many years before retiring. Known for her energetic spirit and straightforward personality, Bobbie Jean lived life actively and enjoyed exercising and staying on the move.

A devoted woman of faith, Bobbie Jean was a true and dedicated member of Hightower Memorial Temple. She served faithfully in numerous capacities, including as a Church Mother, Minister, and in various other ministries. She was always eager to share the goodness of the Lord, offering her testimony of perseverance and how she overcame life's trials and tribulations.

She was united in holy matrimony to her beloved husband, Deacon Edwin Taylor. Together, they celebrated 48 years of marriage built on love, faith, and devotion.

On Monday, September 8, with her husband, son, and family by her side, Bobbie Jean received her heavenly wings.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Deacon Edwin Taylor; son, Jeffery Taylor; daughter, Yachika (Xaveon) Wilson; grandchildren, Jordan, Jace, Khloe, Cree, Gia, and Jiah; her aunt, Barbara McIntyre; godchildren, Madelyn Vickers, Carlos Nelson, Mike Reives, Shakiera Jones, and Sylvia Montgomery; one sister-in-law, Mary Gail Massey; three brothers-in-law: Sam (Rose Taylor Jr.), Dexter (Renee) Taylor, and Connie (Debra) Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, church family, and dear friends.
