

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms
And tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love her and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

Matthew 5:4

“Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.”

Ms. Stella Bryant Williams was born on July 2, 1940, in Coffee County, Georgia, to the late Polly Bryant. She was raised in the Nicholls, Georgia community, where she grew up with strong family values and a spirit of perseverance.

Stella dedicated many years of hard work and service to Douglas Goods Processing Plant, where she worked diligently to provide for her three children. Later in life, she came to know the Lord and became a devoted member of Hightower Memorial Temple under the leadership of Bishop Randolph Scott. Stella loved worshiping, singing, and lifting her voice in praise, always remaining a faithful servant of God.

She was known for her creative spirit and enjoyed crafting and sewing, but her greatest joy came from spending time with her beloved family. Her warm presence and caring heart touched all who knew her.

On Thursday, August 14, 2025, Stella was peacefully called home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at Dorminy Medical Center in Fitzgerald, Georgia.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Polly Bryant; her brothers, Earnest Bryant and Quinton Bryant; and her great-granddaughter, Chloe Paulk.

Stella leaves to cherish her precious memories: her children, Deloris (William) Paulk of Wray, Georgia, Charles Bryant of Miami, Florida, and Tarrent Bryant of Augusta, Georgia; grandchildren, DeRhonda (Clyde) Marshall, Kimberly Paulk, Jennifer Paulk, William Paulk Jr., and Jamela (Brain) Morgan; great-grandchildren, Daisha Marshall, Josiah Marshall, Destiny Marshall, Dedrian Marshall, Kyaire Hurley, Zoey Paulk, Briannah Morgan, Madison Morgan, and Brian Morgan Jr.; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever treasure her memory.
