ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

THE TIME WE HAD

We did not share each passing year,
Or every day that brought us near,
But still, your love was always there—
A quiet strength, a steady care.

I didn't need a thousand days
To know your heart in quiet ways.
Your smile—it warmed the coldest air,
Your laugh still lingers everywhere.

Not every chapter did we write,
But still, you filled my world with light.
And though the time was far too brief,
Your joy lives on beyond my grief.

I see your grin in morning skies,
And hear your laugh when soft wind sighs.
Though fate gave us a shorter song,
Our bond remains, forever strong.

So rest in peace, your race is run,
But in my heart, you're never gone.
For love like ours, though quiet, true,
Still shines in all I say and do.

OBITUARY

Willie Lee Williams was born on June 7, 1962, in Homerville, Georgia, to the late Melvin and Bertha Williams. He attended Coffee High School and later relocated to Lakeland, Georgia, where he discovered a deep passion for martial arts. After dedicating time to learning the discipline, Willie began teaching martial arts, something he found great fulfillment in until his health no longer allowed him to continue.

Willie was preceded in death by his loving parents, Melvin and Bertha Williams; and two brothers, Richard Everett and Clarence Edwards.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted daughter, Mrs. Marchelle (LaToya) Spann of Leesburg, Georgia; one beloved godson, Jalen McGriff; two cherished grandchildren, Aaron Jenkins II and Alicia Jenkins; one brother, Eddie Williams of Douglas, Georgia; and four loving sisters: Minnie (Antwan) Johnson of Winter Haven, Florida; Patricia (John) Moore of Douglas, Georgia; Tangelia (Jimmy) Arnold of Douglas, Georgia; and Shirley (Joe) Wilson of Lakeland, Florida.

Willie also leaves behind two lifelong friends, David Favors and Calvin Jones; a dedicated caretaker, Shelia Henry; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, cousins, and friends who will forever remember his strength, kindness, and unwavering spirit.
