

Until We Meet Again

A light from our lives has gone
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant within our hearts
Which never can be filled.
A bouquet of beautiful memories
Sprayed with a million tears.
I wish God could have spared you
If just for a few more years.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace dear loved one
And thanks for all you've done.
We pray that God has given you
The crown you've truly won.
Your vacant place no one can fill
We miss you now and always will.

From,
Your Children

Acknowledgements

When our grief felt overwhelming, we looked up and found friends by our side offering comfort through flowers, cards, kind words, and open hearts. We are deeply grateful to our family and friends whose prayers, compassion, and countless acts of kindness carried us through this season of sorrow.

Life Reflections

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord

~2 Corinthians 5:8

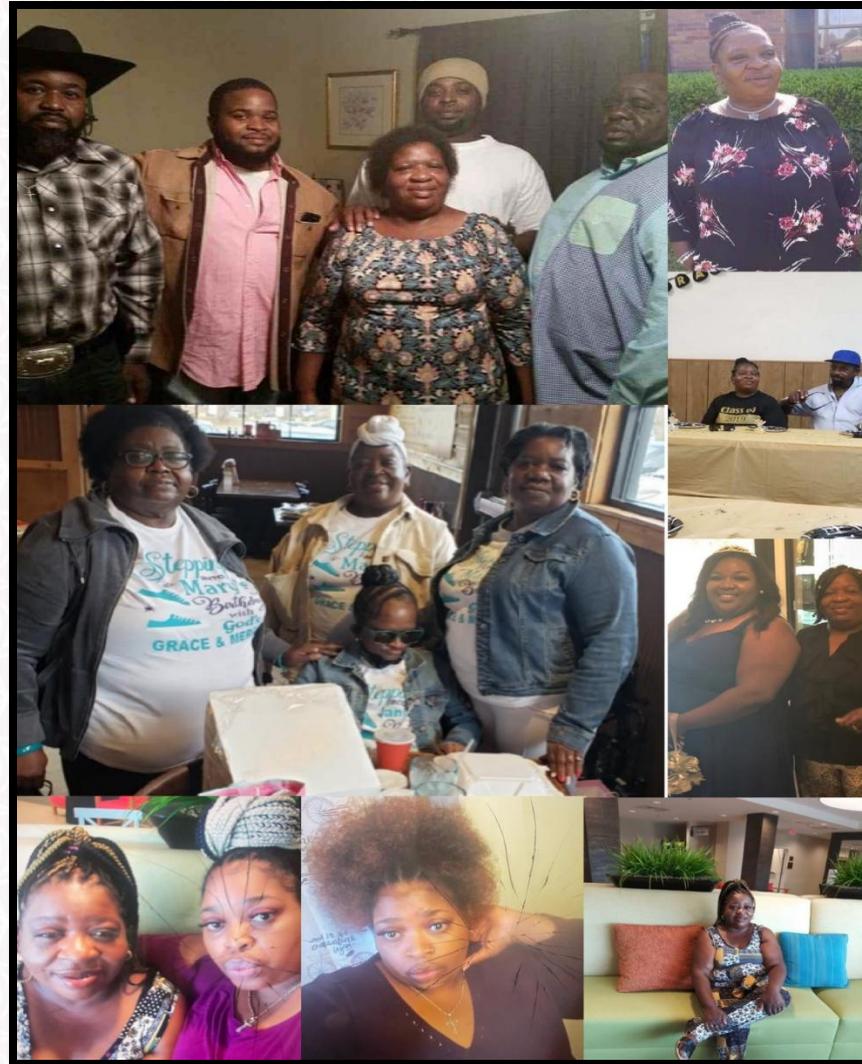

Mrs. Annette Brantley was born on August 29, 1963, to the late Harvey Martin Sr. and Alma Jean Martin. She was educated in the Coffee County School System and furthered her education at Ben Hill and Irwin Technical College.

Annette was formerly united in marriage to Amos Brantley Sr., and to this union five children were born. She had a deep passion for cooking, fishing, and praying, and was known as a great encourager to all who knew her. At a young age, she joined New Beulah Baptist Church in Wray, Georgia, where she faithfully served as church secretary and youth director.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Harvey Martin Sr. and Alma Jean Martin, and one sister, Willie Mae Martin.

Annette leaves to cherish her memories: four sons, Rodriquez Brantley, Timothy Martin, Amos Brantley III, and Michael Brantley; one daughter, Amanda Brantley; five siblings, Macy Martin, Minister Eva (Clyde Jr.) Green, Harvey (Sharon) Martin Jr. , Mary L. Martin, and Sheila Martin; ten grandchildren, Isiah Brantley, Maniya Squire, Jeremiah Brantley, Noah Brantley, Uziah Squire, Jadence Brantley, Allyanna Brantley, Michael Brantley, Timnesha Martin, and Tyshana Miller; brothers and sisters-in love, Frankie Holmes, Josephine (Emory) Chestnut, Dimetrius Holmes, Howard Holmes, and Clinton (Williafred) Brantley; two special nephews, Rakeem Tanksley and Clyde Green III; special niece, Almeshia Fussell; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
