

Farewell

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
Don't shed too many tears, but be thankful*

*We had so many good years.
The journey of life was truly a blessing
For 96 years.*

I have no regrets except those dear hearts

I left behind.

*When life separate us, look for a bird
Chirping on a nearby branch and Remember how you held my hand and Sung to me when sickness and pain was Wrecking through my body.*

*If you keep precious memories,
We will never be apart, and I will live
Forever locked safely within your heart.
Our Family chain is broken, and nothing
Seems the same, but as God call us home
One by one the chain will one day link again.*

Life Reflections

Mr. Fisher Lindbergh Pope, affectionately known as “Bill,” was born on April 21, 1929, in Coffee County, Georgia, to the late James P. Pope Sr. and Odessa Paulk Pope. He received his early education in the Coffee County Public School System.

Mr. Bill worked various jobs for many years to provide for his family. He was a hardworking and devoted husband and father. After retiring from Pilgrim’s Pride, he found joy and fulfillment in tending to his garden, a passion he cherished.

A faithful member of the Church of Christ, Mr. Bill lived a life rooted in faith and perseverance. He fought a good fight, he finished his course, and he kept the faith. After obeying the Gospel, he remained devoted to Christ.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Nadine Goodman Pope; his son, Glenn “Joe” Pope; brothers: Cromwell, Nomi, Lance, James P. Jr., Henry Sr., and Vernon; and sisters: Laska, Hazel, Louise, Mary, and Lorene.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: four children, Clydene (Wilbur) Jordan, Lavouns Moffett, Waunell Pope, and Terence (Pam) Pope; nine grandchildren; host of great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; four sisters-in-law, Frances D. Pope, Martha Mae Goodman, Jurell Brockington, Shirley Jordan, and Carolyn Goodman; one brother-in-law, Wendell Brockington Sr.; a special niece, Elaine Clark; cousins, Pearlne Minor, Pauline Johnson, and James Paulk; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
