

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace bethine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Acknowledgements

We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our time of sorrow with prayers, words, thoughts, visits, and flowers. Words alone cannot express our gratitude. Keep us in your prayers and may God bless you all.

Obituary

Gretta Natson, of Savannah, Georgia, passed away peacefully on October 21, 2025, at the age of 69. Born on May 29, 1956, Gretta lived a life filled with kindness, dedication, and love for her family.

Gretta worked for many years as an administrative assistant at Kern & Co., where her professionalism, warm spirit, and attention to detail earned her the respect and friendship of her colleagues. Though her career was later cut short due to disability, she continued to bring joy and encouragement to those around her through her compassion, humor, and unwavering strength.

Gretta was preceded in death by her beloved mother, Willie Pearl Hutchins; her devoted husband, Robert Natson; and her sister, Gwen Wiley.

She leaves behind a legacy of love through her two children, Valerie Natson and Victor Natson (Britney), both of Savannah, Georgia; four grandchildren, Jeffery Natson, Joseph Natson, Robert Beard Jr., and Kayden Natson, all of Savannah, Georgia; two siblings, Kent Jeffery and Paula Johnson; and her father, George Wiley.
