

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched for nothing loved is ever lost
and she was loved so much.*

Obituary

Jettie Lee Moore Morgan was born on June 19, 1956. She received her education through the Bacon County School System. Later in life, she became employed with Lucky Hearts Products and Associates, where she dedicated her time and hard work.

Jettie accepted Christ as her personal Savior and joined Bethlehem Temple under the leadership of Pastor Tommy Brown. She was a praying woman who faithfully used her gift of prayer each and every day, uplifting her family, friends, and community. Jettie was a pillar of strength, compassion, and faith to all who knew her.

She was united in holy matrimony to Joe Louis Morgan, with whom she shared a life filled with love and devotion.

On October 18, 2025, Jettie peacefully transitioned from this life to her heavenly home.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Albert Moore Jr., Jeanette Moore, and Charlie "Buster" McMillian; four sisters: Jeanell Smith, Maxine Suggs, Antionette Kelly, and Nellarine Merritt; and six brothers: Jack McMillian, Freddie McMillian, John Merritt, Glenn Frost, Bernard Brown, and Randal Grady.

Jettie leaves to cherish her precious memories: her devoted husband, Joe Louis Morgan; four daughters, Tabatha Moore, Tamala Smith, Tina Crosby, and Valencia Belle; her god-daughter, Chandra Mosby; her god-son, Dacota Faulk; sisters, Patricia Anne Moore, Lynette (Freddie) Anderson, and Aretha Davie; brothers, Bobby (Valerie) McMillian and Jimmy (Martha) McMillian; her sister-in-law, Beverly McMillian; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many dear friends.
