In Loving Tribute to Our Mother Luccilla Moore

Mama, because of you we are in the newest season of our lives, as we've never been without your voice, your smile, and your words of wisdom, guidance, and correction. You've shown love in so many ways. You didn't mince words, even when we didn't agree or had a different opinion, you stuck to what you knew to be the truth and would say, "If I say you're up the tree, you might as well come down because I know you up there."

When you knew we'd done something wrong, you would give us an opportunity to tell the truth, "Tell me the truth now," John 8:32 "The truth shall set you free." If we didn't confess, we knew what was coming next.

We remember the times when you'd say, "Root little pig or die." As adults we understand you were simply saying, "Deuteronomy 29:9—make your way prosperous and have good success." We're thinking this is the reason you have not 1 but 2 workaholics Lol!!

We remember when you often told us, "Here's a dime, buy 5 pieces of candy and save the nickel." In that you taught us the value of saving, which led to stewardship and accountability, and to being grateful, and to cherish what we accomplished.

You were such a strong woman who taught us at an early age, and it remains with us to this day, "You are no better than anyone and no one is better than you." This truth allowed us to sit in many rooms and see ourselves as equal to those around us.

You showed us how to set goals, and not give up until it's completed. One of our fondest memories was when you purchased your home, but greater still was when you became a homeowner detached from a mortgage, but then you had the deed in your hand. You showed us what perseverance looks like. "Galatians 6:9, And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

There's no possible way we could ever forget you, the love you've shown, nor what you've taught us. We are extremely grateful to our God that He chose you to be our mother, for us there could be no other.

BENNIE, LARRY, NADINE, KENNETH, ANNETTE, AND RONNIE.

*You fed us well; you made us strong.
You taught us right from wrong.
You made us feel that we belonged.
You showed us the value of a song.
You gave us life; you gave us love.
You always knew the way we felt.
You used the words you thought might heal.
You convinced us it was no big deal.
Your advice would keep it real.
You gave us life; you gave us love.
Broken hearts you liked to mend.
It was not in your nature to offend.
Birthday songs you'd always send.
You knew the value of family and friends.
You give us life; you give us love.
You left us now, you've gone away.
We're left behind, we have to stay.
So, we'll just have to pray.
We'll meet you again another day.
You always had that 'special touch'.
We loved you so very, very much.
You gave us life, you gave us love.*

LOVE ALWAYS,
YOUR GRANDCHILDREN
