

To my Superman

Thank you for being the most loving, caring, and sweetest man I know. Thank you for showing up—even when you didn't have to. You were my one call, my everything. No matter what I needed, you would always say, "Don't worry about it, Cook. I'll handle it," and you always did.

But you were more than a doer. You were a light that no one could dim because you knew exactly who you were. I am so grateful that I was able to experience your unconditional love. It has been the greatest gift of my life, and I am so proud to be your daughter.

Your legacy will live on through every life you touched. I love you forever and always, and there will never, ever be another Calvin Lee Buckley. -Aquashia.

Life Reflections

Mr. Calvin Lee Buckley was born on June 11, 1960, in Nicholls, Georgia, to the late J.C. Davis and the late Bobbie Ruth Burkes. He was lovingly raised by his stepfather, the late John Wesley Suggs.

Mr. Buckley received his education in the Coffee County School System and was a proud graduate of Coffee High School. He later attended Ware Technical College, where he studied to become an electrician. Calvin spent most of his life living and working in Douglas, Georgia, before later relocating to Waycross, Georgia.

Calvin was a faithful and dedicated employee of Walmart Distribution Center, where he worked diligently for 23 years before retiring. He was a devoted husband, loving father, and a man who brought joy and laughter to all who were blessed to know him.

Surrounded by his loving family, Calvin peacefully entered into eternal rest on February 7, 2026, at Savannah Memorial Hospital. In addition to his parents and stepfather, he was preceded in death by two brothers, Charlie L. Burkes and Anthony Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving and devoted wife, Jeannette Parrish-Buckley; four children: Dedric (Chandra) Hardy of Douglas, Georgia; Cedric Hardy of Douglas, Georgia; Carlisa (Roderick) Bailey of Douglas, Georgia; and Aquashia (Larry) Brown of South Carolina; three stepchildren: Malcolm (Myesha) Parrish of Dallas, Texas; Taran Parrish of Atlanta, Georgia; and Arianna Parrish of Marietta, Georgia; three sisters: Dianne Brackins of Nicholls, Georgia; Kezia (Kendall) McDuffie of Jacksonville, Georgia; and Latricia Stubbs of Jacksonville, Florida; three brothers: Earl Cunningham of Nicholls, Georgia; Terrence Davis of Douglas, Georgia; and James (Jerline) Waites of Alma, Georgia; three sisters-in-law: Valerie (Larry) Stamper of Summerville, Georgia; Sarah Parrish of Jacksonville, Florida; and Kendra (Brett) Daniels of St. Simons Island, Georgia; two brothers-in-law: Homer (Nicki) Parrish of Covington, Kentucky; and Casey Parrish of Brunswick, Georgia. He also leaves to cherish his memory his mother-in-law, Bertie L. White of St. Simons Island, Georgia; ten grandchildren; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and many sorrowing friends.
