

If Roses Grow in Heaven

*If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them our my Brother's arms and tell him their from us.
Tell him we love him and miss him,
and when he turns to smile,
place a kiss upon his cheek and hug him for a while.
Because remembering he is easy,
we did it every day,
but there's an pain within our hearts
that will never go away.
We love you Smokie,
Your Sisters Et Brothers*

Precious Memories

The Obituary

Mr. Curtis Lamar Sims, affectionately known as “Smokie,” was born on December 3, 1964, in Pearson, Georgia, to the late Ida Sims and Curtis Leo Sims. He received his education through the Atkinson County School System and was a dedicated and faithful employee of the City of Pearson for many years. Curtis was a devoted member of Heavenly Heights Church in Lakeland, Georgia, where he served under the leadership of Pastor Evelyn Hill.

On January 4, 2026, Curtis peacefully answered his call home to be with his Heavenly Father. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by three siblings: Dewina Tilliman, Warnell Liton, and Jimmy Sims.

Curtis leaves to cherish his precious memories four loving sisters: Blondell (Donell) Johnson, Sandra Sims, and Wanda Sims, all of Pearson, Georgia, and Pearlie (Derrick) Roberson of Atlanta, Georgia; five brothers: Johnny (Linda) Sims of Pearson, Georgia; Larry (Wendy) Sims, Prentis (Betty) Sims, and Bill (Cheryl) Brand, all of Douglas, Georgia; and Phil Brand of Homerville, Georgia. He also leaves a special friend, Patricia Calhoun; a special daughter, Emily James of Lakeland, Georgia; a special granddaughter, Emoni Calhoun of Lakeland, Georgia; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.
