

She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and
Pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and
See all that she has left
Your heart can be empty because
You can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and
Live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow
Because of yesterday
You can remember her and
Only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and
Let it live on
You can cry and close your mind,
Be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on

Life Reflections

With deep love and sorrow, we announce the passing of Deloris Diana Brockington, a beloved mother, sister, grandmother, and friend, who departed this life peacefully on January 24, 2026, surrounded by family and love.

Deloris was born on September 15, 1960, in Willacoochee, Ga to Robert Lee and Dorothy Brockington. From the very beginning Deloris radiated kindness, strength, strength and grace. She carried these qualities with her throughout her life, touching the hearts if everyone she met.

Deloris graduated from Coffee High school in 1977 and earned her bachelor's degree at South Georgia College in 1990, where she begins her nursing career. She was also a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha (AKA) Sorority.

She was proceeded in her death by her parents Robert and Dorothy Brockington and one sibling Lorenzo Brockington.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories three children: Tanjaneka (Joseph) Jordan, Kimberlee (Nickolas) Thomspson, and Matthew (Raven) Golden; five grandchildren: Markeise Moore, Joseph Jordan, Tedarius Jordan, Peyton Jordan, and Blaze Thompson, two great grandchildren, Lydia Moore, and Mason Moore; five sisters, Kathy Brockington, Felicia Clay, Sharon Brockington, Patricia Brockington Grimes, Robin Gordon; four brothers: Robert Brockington, Mackenzie Warren, Rodney Warren, and Charles Clay; three Godchildren: Lakenzia Hatcher, Taquamie (Treneshia) Powell, and Davin Bradshaw, a special niece Katura Brockington and a host of aunts, nieces, uncles and cousins.

Deloris life was a blessing, her memory a treasure. She is loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure.
