

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free..

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."
- 2 Timothy 4:7-8

Pamela Renee Johnson was born on December 8, 1965, to the late Mr. Elise Johnson and Ms. Bessie Mae Vickers Johnson. She was the eldest of four children and a cherished daughter, sister, aunt, and friend.

Pamela peacefully departed this life on December 26, 2025, after an extended illness. She lived a life marked by faith, kindness, and love for family and friends. Pamela was a proud 1983 graduate of Atkinson County High School in Pearson, Georgia. Following graduation, she relocated to Atlanta, Georgia, where she resided for more than thirty years and was employed by McGraw Hill, demonstrating dedication and professionalism throughout her career. She was a member of New Canaan Word of God Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Steven D. King. In 2014, she returned home and continued her Christian walk at Lighthouse Church of God, under the leadership of Bishop Craig Johnson, where her faith continued to flourish.

Pamela was preceded in death by her father, Elise Johnson; a host of aunts and uncles; and her beloved niece, Amber Nicole Wilson.

Though Pamela had no children of her own, her nurturing and motherly spirit extended to all her nieces and nephews, whom she loved dearly. She was known for her sweet disposition, warm smile, and ability to form lifelong friendships that reflected her outgoing and loving personality.

Pamela leaves to cherish her precious memories and legacy: her loving mother, Ms. Bessie Mae Vickers Johnson; her sisters, Paulette Johnson and Estelle Williams; her brother, Antonio Johnson; her aunts and uncles, Ruthie Ann (Freddie) Linton, Oaden Johnson, Mattie Vickers, Evelyn Brown, Janie Taylor, Caroline Nunnally, Coleen Minor, Carolyn (Horace) Foster, David (Hattie) Holland, Jr., Kelly Holland, Willie Joe Holland, Trudy Johnson, Tracy Holland, and Patricia Holland. She is also survived by her nieces and nephews, Brian Wesley, Kyeanna Williams, Quintavious Johnson, Gary Williams, Dontarious Williams, Taniya Johnson, Zion Johnson, Miracle Johnson, and Raelyn Johnson; her great-nieces and nephews, Juwan Wesley, Jhnazia Bryant, Jadia Wilson, Jalia Wilson, and Journeigh Wilson; special God kids, Dasia and Damon, a special niece, Kena Cooper; a beloved friend, Sandra Perry, and a devoted caregiver, Sherinz Wooten.

Pamela also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, church family, and friends who will forever be inspired by her love, strength, and unwavering faith

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."
