

To My Sweet Son

To My Sweet Son in Heaven,

You did so much for my heart

Without even knowing.

Your spirit was kind, true, and full of love.

The years we shared cannot return,

But your love walks with me forever, guiding and comforting me through every step as your mom.

Acknowledgments

The family of Derecious Sanchez Kinsey would like to express our deepest and most heartfelt appreciation for the love, compassion, and support extended to us during this time of sorrow. In the midst of our grief, we were comforted and strengthened by the kindness of family and friends through beautiful flowers, thoughtful cards, comforting words, warm embraces, and sincere acts of care. Your presence and prayers have meant more to us than we can fully express. We ask that you continue to keep our family in your prayers, as we will continue to keep you in ours.
May God richly bless each of you.

Life Reflections

The late Derecious Sanchez Kinsey was born on May 29, 1990, in Douglas, Georgia, to his loving parents, Cynthia and Daniel Marshall. He peacefully departed this earthly life on February 10, 2026.

Derecious received his education at Coffee High School and continued his studies at South Georgia College, where he attended for two years. He later began his career with Pilgrim's Pride, dedicating 12 faithful years of service. His strong work ethic and commitment remained evident throughout his tenure, and he was employed there until the time of his passing.

He was preceded in death by his beloved grandparents, James Kinsey and Linda Gail Mathews-Kinsey.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories his devoted parents, Cynthia and Daniel (Clyde) Marshall; his two children, Ni'Laysia Riley and Malaun Kinsey, both of Douglas, Georgia; one brother, Rashad Kinsey of Douglas, Georgia; and two sisters, Yikiesha (Willie) Styles of Douglas, Georgia, and Jalisa Reid of Jonesboro, Georgia.

He also leaves his loving and devoted girlfriend, Victoria Crawford, and her sons, Nicholas and Kylon Crawford, all of Douglas, Georgia; his cherished grandparents, Betty and Tilford Griner of Baxley, Georgia, and Annie Bell and Clyde Marshall of Douglas, Georgia; his nieces and nephews, Danielle Kinsey, London Long, Marcus Rush Jr., Terrance Kinsey, Mikayla Kinsey, Lillian Kinsey, and Lakely Kinsey; two God-sent sisters, Chandra Denning and Franecsia Young; a special and loving aunt, Courtney Marshall Smith; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will forever treasure his memory.
