HER LIGHT WILL ALWAYS SHINE

She was the kind of woman who made a room feel warmer just by walking into it.

Her laughter was comforting,
her smile unforgettable,
and her heart always open to those she loved.

She was a devoted mother
and grandmother,
a loyal friend,
and a beautiful soul
who gave kindness freely and loved deeply.

Whether through a gentle word,
a helping hand,
or simply being present,
she brought joy to so many lives.

Though our hearts ache
in her absence,
the love she shared
will remain forever.

She will be remembered
for her strength, her laughter,
and the way she made people feel loved.

Gone from our sight,
but never from our hearts.

Life Reflections

“But we are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.”

II Corinthians 5:8

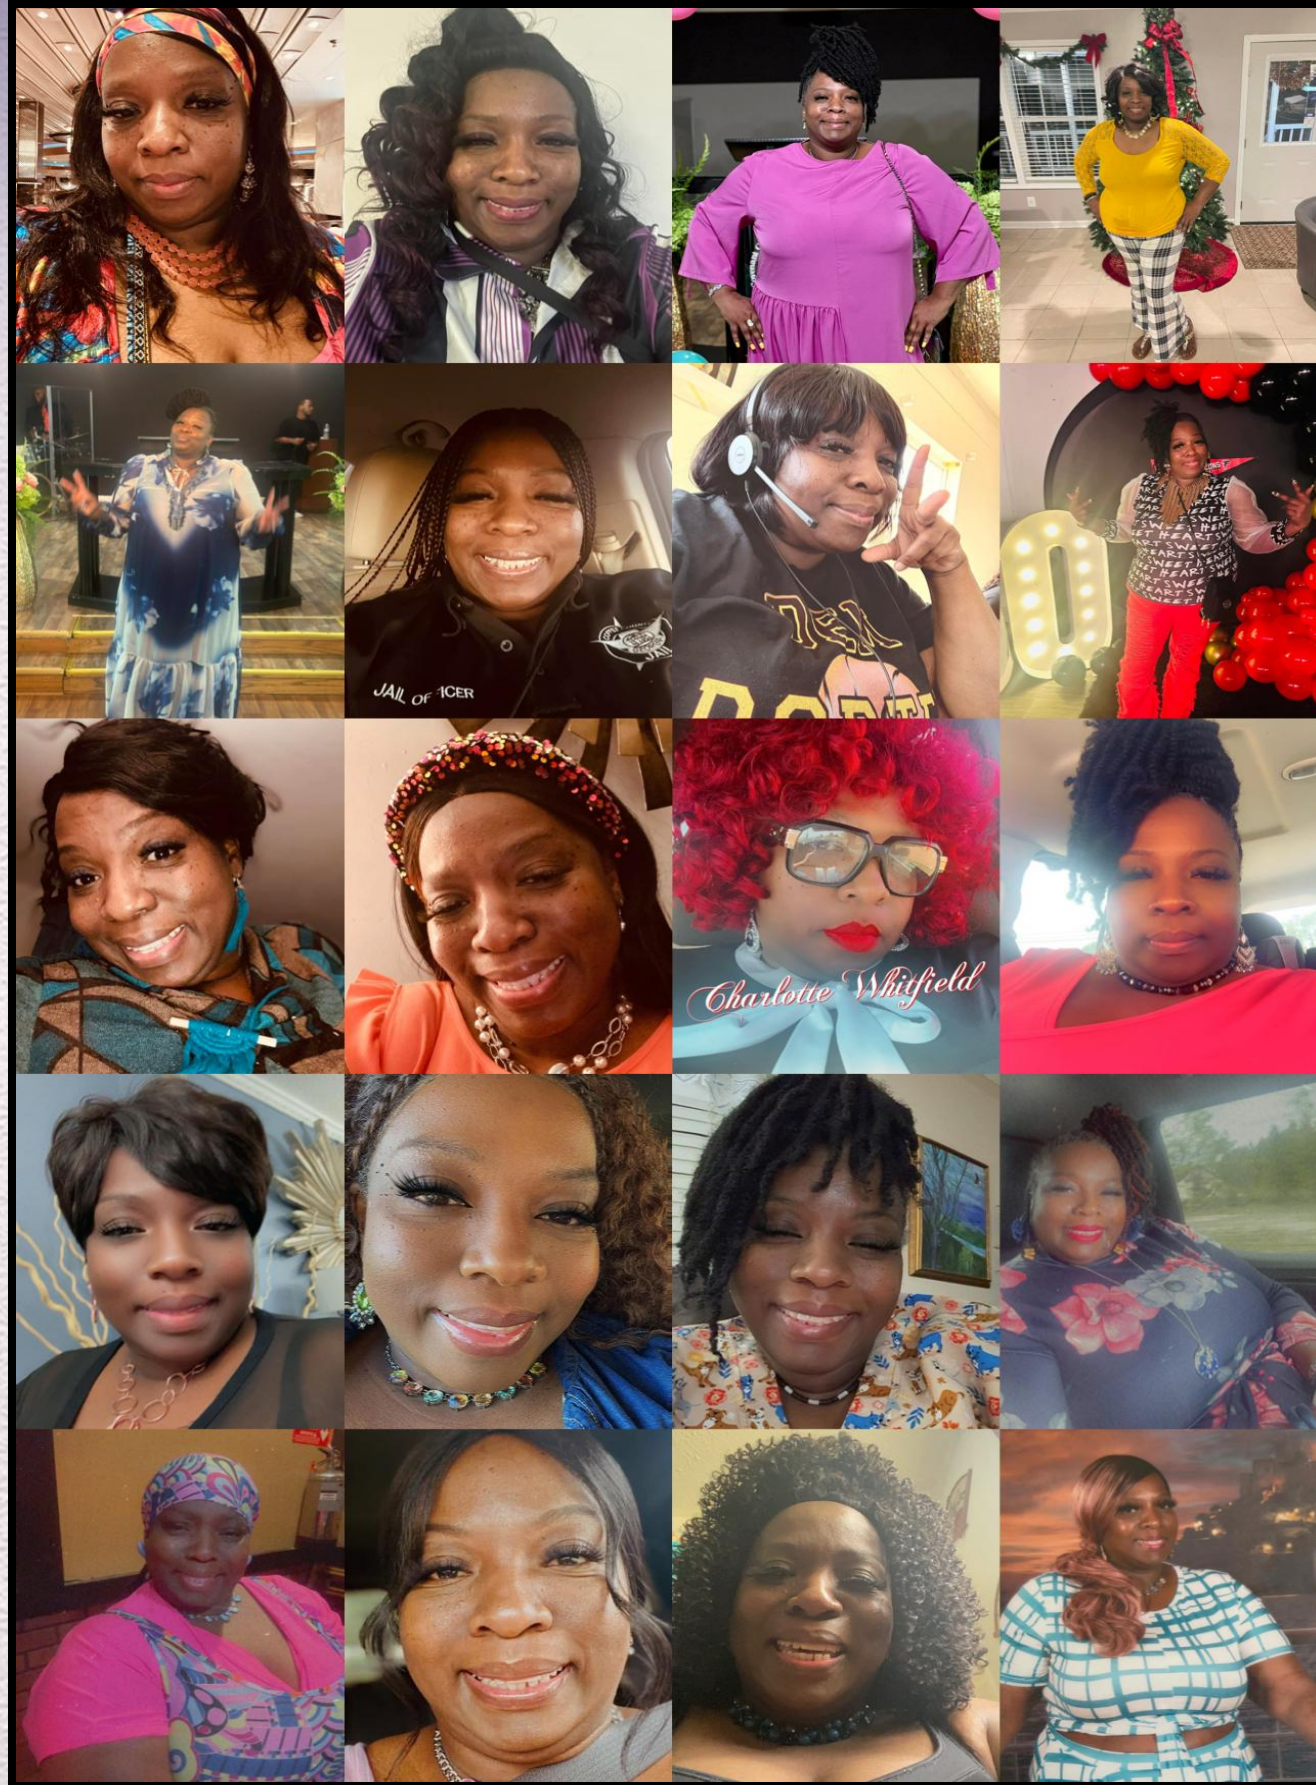

Missionary Charlotte Whitfield was born on August 31, 1972, to Apostle Sid Whitfield and Patricia Dewitt in Douglas, Georgia. She peacefully departed this life on May 4, 2026.

Charlotte was a loving mother, devoted grandmother, cherished daughter, caring sister, and loyal friend whose kindness and warm spirit touched many lives. She was known for her compassionate heart, unwavering faith, and willingness to help others whenever there was a need.

She began her spiritual journey at the Broxton Church of God in Christ, under the leadership of Superintendent Arthur Robinson, where she developed a strong foundation in Christ and a love for ministry. She later united with New Hope Covenant Christian Fellowship Church under the leadership of Pastor Sid Whitfield. There, she faithfully served as a Missionary and worked diligently in the Outreach Ministry, dedicating her time to encouraging, supporting, and ministering to those in need. Her service reflected her deep love for God and for His people.

Missionary Charlotte Whitfield leaves to cherish her precious memories: her loving children; Marquon (Daniellia) Curry, Ashley Porter, both of Orlando, Fl, Summer (Jemarcus Berry) Porter and Jasmine Porter both of Broxton, Ga.; loving grandchildren; Shyane, Asia, Markez, Ziyah, Marqueen, Levi and Justice. Her devoted father, Apostle Sid (Daisy) Whitfield and her beloved mother, Patricia Dewitt; Three brothers: Travis Whitfield, Marcus Glover both of Brunswick, Ga and Wesley (Denay) Harvey of Douglas, Ga; Two sisters: Conquista Glover of Brunswick, Ga and Princess (Greg) Zachery of Broxton, Ga. Seven uncles: Ricky, Chester, Raymond, Morris and Eric Campbell, Ruben Whitfield and Keith Brinson; Five aunts: Helen Watson, Juanita Wilson, Rosa Williams, Carloyn (Hal) Presley and Idella (Robert) Thorpe; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins, church family, and dear friends who will forever treasure the love and joy she shared.
