

Family Love

By: Mira and Sherry

Although you are not here,
You will forever be in our hearts
with plenty of memories.

Your love, care, and feisty ways
bring tears and laughter to our faces.
Though it broke our hearts to get that call,
We hold on to the joy you gave us all.
In every smile, in stories we share,
We feel your presence everywhere.
You taught us well, so we know best,
Mom, don't worry about us. Take your rest.

Acknowledgements

On behalf of the Wilson family, we thank you for taking the time to celebrate our beloved mother. We are eternally grateful to each one of you.

Sincerely,

Obituary

Ms. Thalessa Soyini Wilson, born on March 9, 1974, in Douglas, Georgia, was the beloved daughter of the late Mr. James Lee Wilson and Mrs. Lois James Wilson. She is preceded in death by her parents, as well as her maternal and paternal grandparents.

She spent her formative years in Ocilla and Willacoochee, Georgia, where she developed the character and values that would guide her throughout her life. Ms. Wilson completed her secondary education at Atkinson County High School in Pearson, Georgia.

In pursuit of greater opportunities, she later relocated to Flint, Michigan, where she began a dedicated career in healthcare as a certified nursing assistant at Willowbrook Manor. Demonstrating compassion and a strong work ethic, she continued her service at Kith Haven Nursing & Rehabilitation, faithfully caring for others with dignity and commitment.

In 2012, Ms. Wilson returned to Brunswick, Georgia, as her health began to decline. Throughout her journey, she remained a woman of resilience and quiet strength, leaving behind a legacy marked by service, perseverance, and genuine care for others.

She leaves to cherish her memory two children: Mr. Savon Wilson of Savannah, Georgia, and Ms. Kenosha Wilson of Statesboro, Georgia; and one beloved granddaughter, Miss Simone Toney. She is also survived by two brothers, Mr. David James and Mr. Randall Wilson of Georgia; one sister, Mrs. Sherry Hamilton (Robert) of Flint, Michigan; four nephews, Johnny Ross and Latoya) of South Carolina, Terry McMillion of Florida, Deyleon Henderson of Georgia, and David James Jr. of Georgia; and three nieces, Ms. Taneshia Wilson of Flint, Michigan, Ms. Sherry McMillion of Florida, and Ms. Ladera Blue of Georgia. She also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and other relatives who will cherish her memory.

Ms. Wilson’s life was a testament to compassion, strength, and unwavering dedication to others. Though her time here has passed, the love she gave and the lives she touched will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
