Life Reflections

Today, we gather to honor the baby of the bunch a woman whose honesty and bluntness always left a lasting impression, but whose heart was even bigger than her words. Lisa's laughter, love, and unforgettable spirit touched everyone fortunate enough to know her.

Lisa Engram Byrd was called home on May 6, 2026, at the age of 53. Though her journey here was cut short, she remained full of life, ambition, and dreams. At the time of her passing, Lisa was pursuing her goal of becoming a certified dental hygienist while attending Fortis Institute.

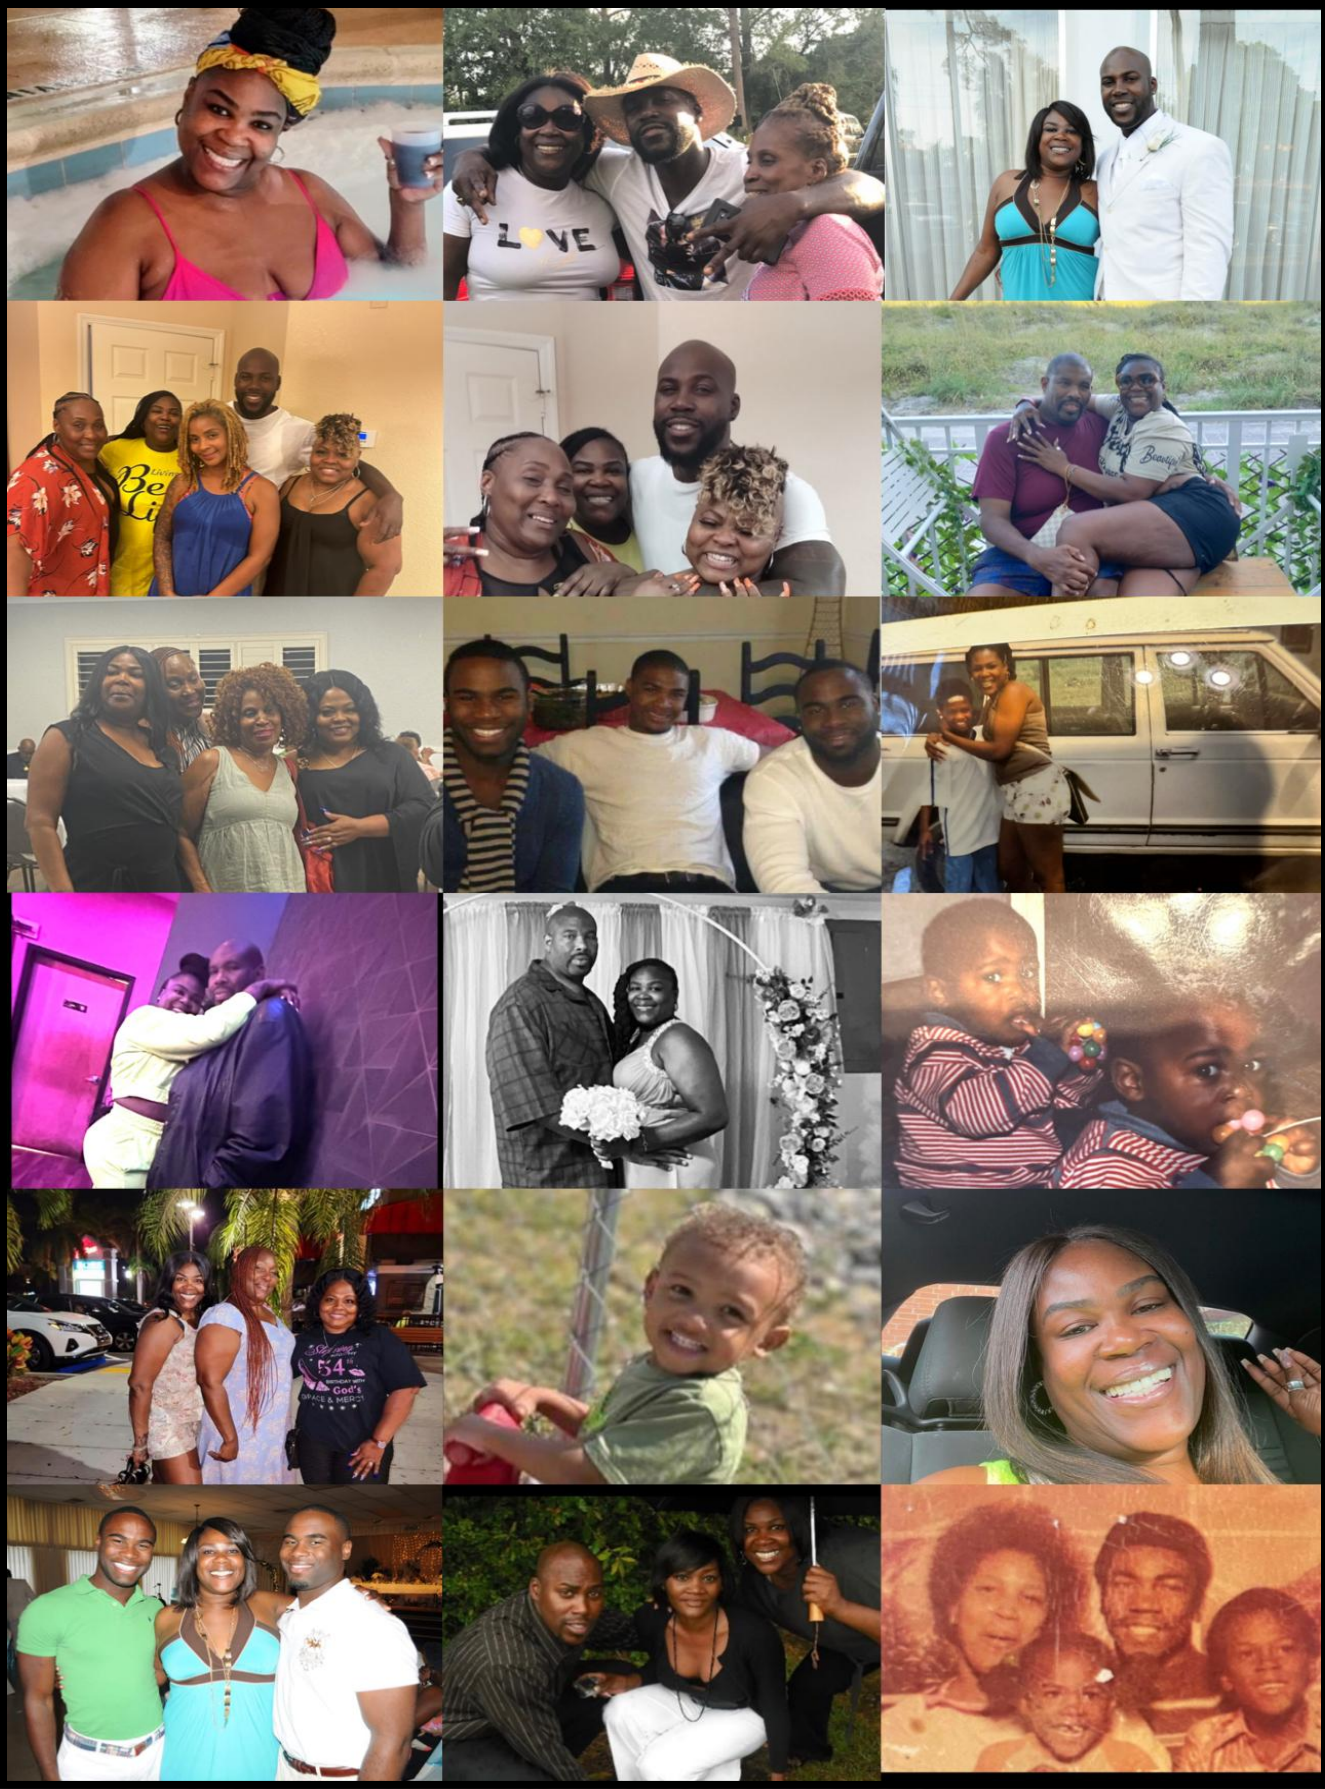

Lisa was born on March 10, 1973, to Luther and Pinkie Engram. From an early age, she brought joy, humor, and warmth into every room she entered. Throughout her life, she experienced many places and adventures, spending time in Frankford, Germany, and Fort Knox, Kentucky, before making her home in Jonesboro, Georgia, where she resided with her loving husband, Richard Byrd.

Lisa's love for family was undeniable. She cherished her children, adored her grandson, and treasured every moment spent with those she loved. Her strength, humor, and caring nature created memories that her family and friends will hold close forever.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Richard Byrd; her loving mother, Pinkie Engram of Brunswick, Georgia; three sons, Bryan Yancey of Las Vegas, Nevada, Ryan Yancey of Jeffersonville, Georgia, and Thomas Paulk of Atlanta, Georgia; and her beloved grandson, Sirius Audene Stroc of Atlanta, Georgia.

Lisa is also survived by her sisters, Tonia Smith of Valdosta, Georgia, Sonya Wimberly-Gibson of West Palm Beach, Florida, and Darlene Lee of Grand Rapids, Michigan; her brother, Luther Engram (Lavi) of Jacksonville, Florida; her dear aunt, Florence Paulk of West Palm Beach, Florida; and her in-laws, Leisa Hunt (Barrington) of Atlanta, Georgia. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, extended family members, and friends who will forever cherish her memory.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
