Acknowledgements

The Brewington family extends our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has shown love, compassion, and support during this difficult time. We offer our sincere thanks to Annie McMillian and James Thompson for your kindness and unwavering support. We are especially grateful to the compassionate staff of Vitas Hospice Care for the exceptional care, comfort, and dignity they provided to our beloved mother during her final days. To all who expressed your sympathy through prayers, visits, phone calls, cards, flowers, acts of kindness, social media tributes, and words of encouragement, please know that every gesture brought comfort to our family and was deeply appreciated. We also extend our sincere appreciation to everyone who helped make this homegoing celebration a beautiful tribute to our mother's life. To our family members and friends who came when you could, called when you could, prayed when you could, gave what you could, and simply stood beside us in love. We are forever grateful.

Life Reflections

Today, we gather to celebrate the remarkable life and enduring legacy of Mrs. Hattie Mildred Brewington, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, and friend who was blessed to live a beautiful life of 97 years.

Hattie Mildred Brewington was born on December 30, 1928, in Langdale, Alabama, to the late Mary Eunice Dunlap. As a young child, she relocated to Douglas, Georgia, with her mother and three sisters, where she attended Coffee High School.

Hattie married the love of her life, Roy Brewington. Together they made their home in Florida, where they lovingly raised their family of ten children. During their years in Florida, they faithfully worshipped as members of Community Baptist Church in Hollywood, Florida.

After retiring, Hattie and Roy returned to Georgia and settled in Denton, where they became devoted members of Bethel AME Church. Following the passing of her beloved husband, Hattie moved to Port Saint Lucie, Florida, to reside with her daughter, Tamyé Brewington. There, she united with The River of Life Fellowship Church under the leadership of Pastor Vernon Shazier, where she continued to grow in her faith and enjoy fellowship with her church family.

Mrs. Brewington was a woman of unwavering faith, strength, compassion, and quiet grace. She was devoted to her family and found great joy in watching generations of her family grow. Her wisdom, love, and nurturing spirit touched countless lives and created a legacy that will continue for years to come.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Roy Brewington; her mother, Mary Eunice Dunlap; her sisters, Mathleen Booker, Lois Freeman, and Helen Sherrell; her sons, Gary Brewington and Michael Brewington; her stepson, Glynn Brewington; and her great-great-granddaughter, Alayah Carr-Wilson.

Benediction

“Dear”

As special as a blooming flower

As refreshing as a summer shower

Words of wisdom always said

Quoting scriptures she had read

She loved her friends and family too

Gave birth to ten kids was so amazing

Raising ten kids deserves some praising

A strong mother a strong wife

She lived a long amazing life

So glad we could share her final days

She’s so “Dear” to us in many ways

No pain no worry and no fear

Rest in peace, We love you “Dear”

She’s our mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great grandmother

She’s truly loved like no other

By, Cynthia Brewington
