

Someone Is Missing

*Let this be a loving reminder
That someone is missing today.
Someone our hearts still hold onto,
As we travel along life's way.
Someone who made life special,
For all who gather here.
Someone who won't be forgotten,
But cherished from year to year.
And now as we all pause to remember,
Let us all fondly recall,
How dearly each of us loved him,
and oh how he loved us all.*

Precious Memories

His Life Story

Alvin Williams, Jr. was born on November 6, 1960, in Irwin County, Georgia, to the late Albert Williams and Bernice James Williams. He departed this life leaving behind a legacy of faith, love, and devotion to his family and community.

Alvin was a faithful member of The Move of God Deliverance Center under the leadership of Pastor Willie Carter. He served diligently and faithfully as an usher, always greeting others with kindness, humility, and a willing spirit. His unwavering commitment to God and his church family reflected the values by which he lived each day.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Callie Mae Tucker Williams; one daughter, Brenda Johnson; one brother, James Williams; and three sisters, Clementine Bailey, India Smith, and Annie Joyce Williams.

Alvin leaves to cherish his precious memories two sons, Alford Williams and Alvin (Michelle) Williams; one daughter, Ashley Speed; seven sisters, Jennifer Hughes, Brenda Sanders, Sandra Smith, Shelia Wilson, Betty Williams, Mary Butler, and Rena Littleton; two brothers, Namon Williams and Danny Williams; eight cherished grandchildren; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory.
