Life Reflections

On September 4, 1963, Clifton Self and Annie Self welcomed a beautiful baby girl into the world. That precious child grew into the remarkable woman we know and love as Cynthia Self Denning.

Cynthia was born and raised in Coffee County, Georgia, where she received her education and became well known and deeply loved throughout the community. She had a generous spirit and was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Whether preparing one of her delicious home-cooked meals or simply offering a kind word, Cynthia made everyone feel welcome. She never met a stranger, and she lived each day with love, laughter, and joy at the center of her life.

Cynthia found the love of her life in Fabian Denning, and together they were united in holy matrimony. She took great pride in being "Mrs. Denning" and treasured the life they built together. Above all, Cynthia's greatest joy was her family. She was a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished grandmother, and faithful friend whose love knew no bounds.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clifton Self and Annie Self, and her beloved grandson, Damarrio Self, Jr.

On Tuesday, July 28, 2026, Cynthia peacefully exchanged the cares and burdens of this earthly life for eternal rest.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories and continue her legacy her devoted husband, Fabian Denning; her beloved children, Tekema Self, Ryshed Self, Demarrio Self, Akiera (Jason) Brown, and Tyrone Sirmans; and her cherished grandchildren, Amber Self, Zeryn Self, and Demarrio Self III. She is also survived by her loving sisters, Renee Hart and Joane (Marcus) Darby; her mother-in-law, Bernice Minor-Roberts; her special uncle, Bobby Garvin; her brother-in-law, Anthony (Angela) Denning; her special cousin, Natasha Wallace; and her dear friends, Felicia Henry, Kim Vickers, Kim Green, and Kwasi Adams. In addition, Cynthia leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and countless friends whose lives were touched by her kindness, generosity, and unwavering love.

"As a well-spent day brings happy sleep, so a life well lived life brings sweet rest"
