

My Grandma

A woman of many words
But a heart of Gold
She begin raising me
When I was two weeks old
Carrying so many burdens
And countless stories left untold
She remained a woman of virtue
Who I never once seen fold
A good meal was always a treat
The moment, laughter, joy as we eat
Though she was a woman of many words
Her actions said more than words could say
As she stood beside her husband
From marriage until his final day
Through every season, and every storm
Her love remained steady faithful and true
And when he departed
A piece of her heart went with him too
Though dementia slowly took some memories away
Your words of wisdom and precious memories will never be erased
While our hearts ache now that yall are gone
In our hearts you will forever live on.
Rest peacefully Grandma
You have earned your wings
No more pain, struggling or difficult things
No more talking about Henry Lee
For with him now you will always be
So let Grandpa know we love and miss him dear
And until we meet again we will hold both of you near
You were our mom, protector, and world
Rest in peace beautiful

Love Always,

Latoya

Her Story

Frances Delores Pope was born on May 25, 1935, in Irwin County, Georgia, to the late Ida Mae and Norman McDuffie, Sr. She received her education in Irwin County. At the tender age of nine, Frances began working at a local bakery, where she made doughnuts. Throughout her life, she held several jobs and ultimately retired from Golden Poultry.

She was a woman of many talents and found joy in sewing, crocheting, cooking, gardening, and singing. She was a loving and devoted mother whose family was a cherished part of her life.

Frances peacefully departed this life on Sunday, August 16, 2026. She was preceded in death by several siblings, in-laws, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving children: Jimmy (Lois) Pope, Carnell (John) Sutton, Larry (Donna) Pope, Gwenda (Richard) Williams, Henry Pope, Jr., Jerrie (Torio) Terrell, Pamela (Rufus) Freeman, and Freda Y. Pope; one brother, Norman McDuffie, Jr.; one sister, Ida Ruth Moore; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever treasure the memories they shared with her.
