

Life Is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what's to be,

A resting place along the road,

To sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

But never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,

Far greater than we know.

For some the journey's quicker,

For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We'll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the lord.

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to our family, friends, and loved ones for the kindness and support shown to us during this difficult time. When our loss felt too heavy to bear, your prayers, comforting words, cards, flowers, and thoughtful gestures reminded us that we were not alone. Your presence and expressions of sympathy have brought comfort and strength to our hearts. We sincerely appreciate every act of kindness and every prayer offered on our behalf. Please continue to keep our family in your prayers, as we will keep you in ours. May God bless and keep each of you.

Her Story

Idashia Azona Tiynea Tucker was born on August 28, 2004, in Ocilla, Georgia, to Kennesya and Ricardo Tucker. From the moment she entered this world, Idashia brought a light that could never be duplicated. Her life, though far too short, was filled with moments, memories, laughter, love, and dreams that will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew her.

Idashia departed this earthly life on August 15, 2026, leaving behind a love that cannot be measured and a space in the hearts of her family and friends that can never be filled.

Idashia was a proud graduate of Coffee High School, Class of 2022. She later attended Wiregrass Technical College, where she earned her Diesel Certification. She was a young woman with ambition, courage, and a heart full of dreams. She was planning to join the United States Marine Corps, continuing to build a future she could be proud of and creating a life filled with purpose.

Idashia was also a faithful member of Carver Baptist Church, where her faith and connection to God remained an important part of her life. Above all, Idashia was a loving mother, daughter, sister, niece, granddaughter, aunt, cousin, and friend. Her greatest joy was her son, Amir Christian Tucker, whom she loved beyond words. Her love for Amir was unconditional and everlasting. She dreamed of watching him grow, guiding him through life, celebrating his accomplishments, and being there for every milestone. Though she will not be able to walk beside him in the way she had hoped, the love she gave him will forever be a part of who he is.

Idashia shared a special bond with her siblings, Diamond Tucker and Ricardo “Quez” Tucker, and with M’ahaley Sheppard, whom she loved and cherished like a sister. Their bond was more than family—it was built through love, memories, laughter, and the countless moments that made their relationship special. The love they shared will remain a treasured part of Idashia’s legacy.

Idashia was preceded in death by her aunt, Natasha Tucker, and her grandparents, Minnie Kay Parker, Vincent Tucker, and Frank Toombs.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her beloved son, Amir Christian Tucker; her parents, Kennesya and Ricardo Tucker; her sister, Diamond Tucker; her brother, Ricardo “Quez” Tucker; her sister at heart, M’ahaley Sheppard; and her grandmother, Willie Mae Tucker. She also leaves three nieces, Kaylynn Royals, Kennesya “Kali” Fredricks, and Aminaa Tucker; six aunts, Tanisha (Donte) Sheppard, Victoria Tucker, Kendra Adams, Lawanda Odoms, Stephanie Tucker, and Tara Tucker; four uncles, Michael Tucker, Terrance Odoms, Macorian Saffold, and Fiore Odoms; her godmother, Tracy Temple; her godson, Chase Wiggins; and two special cousins, Keke Banks and Destiny Wright. She will also be deeply missed by a host of cousins, extended family members, and friends whose lives were touched by her presence.
