MAMA, IT WAS YOU

AUGUST 28, 2026

You held me in your arms

Mama, you nursed me with your hands

A love so close to God's

The love that He demands

Chorus:

No one can love me the way you do

There was no one besides you

Mama, you prove your love is true

That's why I know (hold), it was you

Chorus:

No one can love me the way you do

There was no one besides you

Mama, you prove your love is true

That's why I know (hold), it was you

It was you who looked into my eyes

Late at night when I began to cry

Wiped my tears, cleaned my runny nose

Changed my pampers and my messy clothes

Mama, it was you, it was you

Oh, oh, oh, oh, it was you

It was you who laid me down to sleep

It was you who gave me food to eat

Mama, it was you who taught me how to talk

It was you who showed me how to walk

Life Reflections

Mother Betty R. Rease was born on January 17, 1944, in Irwin County, Georgia, to the late Robert Rosier and Lady Byrd Rosier. From an early age, she developed the strength, determination, and caring spirit that would characterize her life and leave a lasting impression on those who knew and loved her.

Mother Rease received her education in the Coffee County School System and proudly graduated from Carver High School. Following her education, she entered the workforce and held various positions within the sewing industry. Blessed with skillful hands, creativity, and an eye for detail, she became an accomplished seamstress. Her talent for sewing was more than an occupation; it became one of her lifelong passions.

Determined to expand her career, Mother Rease later joined PCC Airfoils, where she became a dedicated and valued employee. She faithfully worked there for many years before retiring. Retirement, however, did not diminish her desire to remain active. She returned to her passion for sewing and continued using her talents as a seamstress, creating and altering garments with the care and precision for which she was known.

Mother Rease was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Rease. Their union became an important part of the life and legacy she built through the years.

Her life was one of hard work, perseverance, service, and devotion to those she loved. The talents of her hands, the wisdom gained through her years, and the memories she created will remain treasured by her family, friends, and all whose lives she touched.

Mother Rease was preceded in death by her parents, Robert Rosier and Lady Byrd Rosier; her beloved children, Anthony Rosier, Doretha Vickers, Robert Derick Vickers, Nelda Vickers, and Samantha Holley; and her siblings, Clifford Gibson, J.L. Thomas, Everlina Paulk, David Rosier, Ophelia Swinson, and Fred Lee Rosier.

Mother Rease leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving husband, Albert Rease; her children, Stephanie (Wallace) Mizell, Dewayne (Sandra Johnson) Vickers, Andy Rease, Dorian (Latrice) Vickers, and Cory Vickers; one brother, Mack Brown; her in-laws, Virginia Rease, Shirley (Jerome) Phillips, Barbara Lewis, Winnell Thomas, Merian Gibson, and David (Catherine) Rease; along with a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear
