

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me, I've just gone ahead
Where gentle paths of light are spread
No fear, no pain can follow here,
Just quiet joy, so calm and clear.

Don't cry for me-your tears I feel,
But let your heart begin to heal.
For love like ours will never end,
It bends with time, but does not bend.

Don't cry for me stand tall, be brave,
Live fully in the life you gave.
Each dream you chase, each hope you see,
Is part of you and part of me.
And one sweet day, when time is right,
We'll meet again in endless light.
Until that day, just know it's true,
My love still walks this world with you.

Obituary

John 3:16

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.”

Ross Maurice Williams was born on December 29, 1983, in Opp, Alabama, to Robert L. Williams, Jr. and Betty Tyson Williams. He received his formal education through the Coffee County School System in Douglas, Georgia.

Maurice was a devoted father and a hardworking man who made a lasting impression on the lives and hearts of everyone who had the privilege of knowing him. He will be remembered for the love he shared with his family, his determination, and the special memories he created with those around him.

On August 31, 2026, Maurice gained his wings and peacefully entered eternal rest at Select Specialty Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, following an extended illness.

Those left to cherish his precious memories are his children, Ahlara Williams and Xavier Smith; his parents, Robert and Betty Williams of Douglas, Georgia; one sister, Melissa Williams of Douglas, Georgia; three special nephews, Takari Burchett, Kharyn Burchett, and Jayveon Harrell, all of Douglas, Georgia; one beloved niece, Lauryn-Aaliyah Harrell; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will forever treasure his memory.

Though he is no longer with us in physical form, the love he shared and the memories he created will remain forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
